PASTOR PAUL'S PONDERINGS

Saturday greetings, Linwood friends! As I write this early in the week, it is a beautiful day here in this wonderful corner of God's creation! How blessed we are to be able to enjoy such an amazing view of the lake and sunrises and sunsets and trees and birds and flowers day after day! "O Lord, how wondrous are your works!"

Jan and I have also been so blessed to enjoy many fun conversations and interactions with folks as we attend worship or other events in The Park, or just walk around the neighborhood in the evening as many of you do. You have welcomed us with open arms and warm, loving hearts and we are truly grateful for that blessing each and every day! Feel free to stop and say hello either at 444 Ash (Auburn Cottage) or during my "office hours" Monday thru Thursday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. (except Wednesdays from 10 - 11 a.m.)

During our gathering with the Linwood Park Prayer Group which meets each Monday morning, someone in the group commented about feeling a different spirit of openness, friendship, and cooperation in The Park as this summer is unfolding. Perhaps that is connected to our summer worship themes of learning together about the gift of God's Holy Spirit! We have talked about the Spirit bringing gifts of life, wisdom, grace, freedom, and truth to us in our journey of faith as believers. I for one choose to believe it is that very Holy Spirit who is moving and working among us during this summer of 2023! Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

This Sunday morning, we will be learning about the Spirit of Revelation. I'm excited to welcome a dear friend and pastoral colleague from Pittsburgh to bring our message in The Tabernacle on Sunday. Pastor Bill Little and wife Ellen have served several Presbyterian congregations in the Pittsburgh area until his retirement a few years ago. Ellen also served many years as Librarian at the Pittsburgh Theological Seminary library. Bill and I were in a monthly pastor lunch/support group for a number of those years. I know Bill will bring a stirring message to us on Sunday morning at 11 a.m. in The Tabernacle! Please plan to join us in worship, meet Bill and Ellen, and welcome them to Linwood!

See you Sunday,

Paul

BEYOND THE GATES

There are a couple new Vermilion stores that you may not have discovered. One is the Deli/Grocery at the Corner of Liberty and West River Road, just as you cross the bridge into town. Besides deli items, lots of beverages, chips, etc., you will find fresh Indian food. like butter chicken.

An unexpected treasure trove is The Shop at Cleveland Stone, beyond the Deli on West River Road. This shop offers unique gift options, from home décor and accent furniture to handmade jewelry and natural stone items.
