Welcome to Worship

Jon Wolny will bring us the message from God's Word this Sunday in The Tabernacle. He will conclude a 2-week series titled, "Fighting the Good Fight in the Family of Faith." And you can look forward to hearing Jamie Flick sing.

All are welcome to this interdenominational gathering. Please sit in family groups on the cushions, which will be arranged to maintain distance. Children ages 2-5 will be invited to leave The Tabernacle before the sermon for their own special time.

The service will be live-streamed or you can view the service at your convenience anytime later in the week. You will find the service at:

<https://www.facebook.com/LinwoodCCL/> or LinwoodChristianLife.org.

ADULT FORUM

SUNDAY - 10 A.M.

Join Dan Humphries in the Stand at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday for a class titled "God's Plan for Your Money." The Bible offers 500 verses on prayer, fewer than 500 verses on faith, and more than 2,000 verses on money. Why that emphasis? Join Dan for a conversation about this significant topic.

Also on Sunday at 10:00 in the Chapel: "The Fourth Quarter," led by Carolyn Reed. Join us for our last gathering, where we will talk about heaven! Yes, Linwood offers a taste—but the future is infinitely better!

Reminders from the Linwood Board of Directors

✚ Watch your speed! 10 mph!
Keep your eyes on those kids—they're not watching for you!

✚ Trash is collected on Monday on the street in front of the cottage or you can drop it off at the compactor. Please only recycle in recycle bins, and trash in the compactor! Since there's not much room, only put your bulk items out the day before bulk pick-up. (Bulk dates on sign at compactors.)

✚ Relax by your bonfire but make sure the wind is blowing toward the lake, and put it out before leaving.

✚ Golf carts are great! But they're treated liked a car so keep them on the road!

THE BREEZE IN OUR MIDST

This summer, we would like to share small stories of how God is moving among us, like a "breeze in our midst." If you have a story to share, please send it to Kim Csepe at: secretary@linwoodchristianlife.org. No story is too small!

MEETING A NEED

The Prothero, Bittner and Shallcross Families

Recently friends came to stay at our Prothero Lakehouse. One of the family members is confined to a wheelchair due to Cerebral Palsy. He has been to the Atlantic Ocean in the past and was able to go to the beach by renting a beach accessible wheelchair. We attempted, unsuccessfully, to find one to rent for him in the Vermilion area. Realizing this important need prompted our family to purchase a beach wheelchair so he was able to join his family for fun-filled days on Linwood beach.

Our mother, Jean Prothero, treasured time with her family here at our Linwood home, but especially enjoyed the great times chatting on the beach and watching all the fun in the sand and water. Even into her nineties, no summer was complete without trips to the beach, which became very difficult for her to manage, but we always found a way to get her there safely with family members at her side. She would have loved having this big blue wheelchair to make her daily trek to the beach.

Spending time with family on our beautiful beach is something we want everyone to enjoy, so we would like to donate this chair in memory of our mom, Jean. As a result, it is available for many years to come for others who may have a need in our Linwood community. With Matt Crase's help we will find a spot near The Stand for it to be available during the summer months.

OUTSTANDING RESTAURANT EXPERIENCE

If you are looking for a good meal in a pleasant setting, just drive east on route 2 to Lorain. On the corner of Broadway and route 2 is the Adrian Hotel, which houses Dodie's Dockside. The building has been beautifully restored, and the restaurant is elegant. What a menu—many choices! All of them well presented, and (more important!) delicious! A Linwood family of seven recently enjoyed everything they ordered, especially the lobster rolls, which were agreed to be as meaty and delicious as any in New England. The servers were attentive and pleasant, and owner Tim circulated, welcoming diners.

An overall delightful, delicious experience!

The Linwood Breeze is brought to you by the Linwood Christian Life in cooperation with the Cottage Owners Association. If you have info and/or pictures you would like included, email to: breeze@linwoodchristianlife.org. Deadline for information is noon each Tuesday. If there are pictures of children in the photos, include parental permission for us to publish the picture online and in the printed newspaper.
