THANKS TO EVERYONE WHO JOINED FOR BINGO FAMILY NIGHT THIS WEEK!

From the Pen of Pastor Paul...

Greetings Linwood Park Friends!

I'll kick things off this week with a big word of thanks to all those who made our Outdoor Worship service and Fellowship Potluck last Sunday go so smoothly! Grant Turner, David Csepe, and Jason Hetcher were there outdoors to set up what was needed for sound and music for worship on the Bluff. And the Linwood Christian Life Executive Team made sure everything was in place for the Potluck lunch, along with all the contributions from others. Thanks to everyone whose time and effort made it happen! We'll have another Sunday like that to look forward to on Sunday August 16th!

This Sunday we'll be back in the Tabernacle for worship at 10:45 a.m. preceded by Youth and Adult Sunday School classes at 9:45 a.m. We'll continue our series of messages on the Promises of God as we reflect on the Promise of God's Provision.

As we all know, we are living in anxious times! Studies have shown that levels of anxiety and worry in our lives are increasing due to economic, political, and world issues and events. We are surrounded by social media, 24 hour news cycles, and the events in our own daily lives all reminding us that life can change in an instant. Sleepless nights and anxious days are all too common for many of us as we try to navigate life in a healthy and balanced way.

In the midst of that current reality, we need to remember not to fixate our attention on those things while forgetting to focus our minds and hearts on the presence of God in our lives and world. Jesus' counsel in Matthew 6 to "not be anxious about your life" is predicated on the reality of a God who knows all of our needs and watches over us 24/7/365. We'll explore the implications of that more deeply on Sunday morning. So if you find yourself anxious, worried, or uneasy about things in your life right now, join us in worship as we explore the Promise of God's Provision for us!

See you Sunday,

Pastor Paul

Musings from the Porch: Cottage Owners' Updates

Hi neighbors. We are one week away from the July 4th Parade! The park will be packed as we celebrate the 250th birthday of the USA.

As you know by now, the Best Little Fourth of July Parade is on Saturday, July 4th and begins at 10:00 AM. Thanks to help from our community, we now have enough convertibles to transport all the parade marshals and characters. Phew! We hope to see you all next Saturday. Check the park bulletin boards for details on what time and where to report if you are planning to be in the parade. I am very thankful for everyone on the parade committee for their efforts to make sure this year's parade lives up to standards set for the past 30+ years.

The week leading up to July 4th is when the LPCOA events begin in earnest. This coming week features a frisbee golf tournament, a paddle board event, and the Ludwig leg-a-thon. Join us at the events as a participant or a spectator. Check the LPCOA website, park bulletin boards, or the new message boards at the Stand for more information.

If you are interested in contributing financially to the LPCOA, please contact Dick Dreyer or mail your contribution to Dick at 543 Zion Dr. Powell, OH 43065.

Stay well and see you soon at Linwood Park!

Kudos Korner

This corner of The Breeze is used to thank someone and let them know how fortunate we are to have them in our community.

This week's star goes to - The Prothero Family. "I'd like to nominate the Prothero Family, who always seem to have room at their cottage due to their friendliness and willingness to share. If you weren't "born into" Linwood, you might have had to have someone invite and welcome you and the Prothero family is a model of that kind of generosity."

Thanks, Prothero Family!
